TWO NEW COMPANIES.

They are Organized to Take Over Departments of Z. C. M. I.

Attorney C. C. Richards yesterday completed articles of incorporation for the Watson-Flygare Hardware company and the Watson-Tanner Clothing company, which will be filed in the county clerk's office here today. Each concern will be incorporated for $20,000, with shares of a par value of $100 each. These are the two companies that formed among the employes of the Z. C. M. I. and took over the stock of the clothing and hardware departments of that institution. Both are incorporated for a period of 100 years.

The officers in the first-named company are: John Watson, president-treasurer; N. C. Flygare, vice president, and firmed by County Commissioners. To the county commissioners yesterday County Assessor Edwin Dix submitted the names of E. H. Orth and Miss Inez V. Adams as clerks in the assessor's office V. Adams as clerks in the assessor's office and the appointments were confirmed. Chairman Joseph Sanford reported that he had been in communication with the state fish and game warden and that Weber county was promised some trout fry for its streams in Sentember. A short time ago it was given out that the county was not to receive any fry on account of 50 many having been shipped to private parties here, and that there was a greater need for them in other counties.

Sunday, when Bishop E. T. Woolley, during the course of his remarks referred to the matter. Both the accuser and the accused are members of the Mormon church of that ward as was brought out during the trial. Bishop Woolley called attention to the case and took occasion to say that there should be no ill-feeling between the brethren as a result of the action and said that he did not think that there was any malice on Mr. Skeen's part. After he had concluded Mr. Skeen arose and corrected what he termed a false impression that seemed to prevail throughout the city concerning his action in the matter. He said that he had not the least malice in his heart against Mr. Chambers, and that it was merely his sense of duty as a citizen that prompted him to take the action in the case brought against Mr. Chambers and the other city councilmen. He also denied that there was any one else behind him in the action.
